

2016 Avila Monochrome

Small Print Circuit Catalogue

PSA # 2016-327

First to the entries in the second Avila Monochrome (only) exhibition – We had a much larger number of images entered than we had imagined – and it made for a better “public” exhibition after the judging panels reviewed everything! There were a good number who had no acceptances and for that I am not happy – I have always found it positive to have at least one print from each entrant.

Our exhibitions were not what could be called ‘normal’ by PSA standards, but all 5 exhibitions were viewed by at least 3,600+ people: We used available commercial spaces in Palo Alto, Berkeley, Walnut Creek, San Jose and Hayward, California. These ‘store front’ spaces were between rentals/leases with a company owned by a photo enthusiast who welcomed us for Thursday thru Monday shows over one weekend when we used the PushPin style of exhibitions. We offered images, a printed list of local camera clubs web sites, information on PSA, along with two or more onsite photographers to answer people’s questions. We also offered small bottles of water (donated) and Tea, Coffee, Lemonade and Dixie cups for the drinks. We used over 2400 cups and felt 2/3rds of the people took something to drink = That’s 3600 people when including the 400 bottles of water used.

Look at the current number of shows/exhibitions offered in the USA and you will see that they are at an all-time low. I have several ideas on why this is but feel the most valid one relates to the falling numbers in PSA: Long term it has gone from 18,900 in 1990 to the current 4700 or so individual member today.

This is currently being dealt with by yet another committee within PSA which is made up of those who have PSA experience which is limited to areas of the photo community already within PSA. I fear it’s yet again the preacher talking to the choir!

These were the judges for the 2016 Avila Monochrome prints: This panel accepted 391 images (an average of 27%) of the 1425 images entered.

Janice Anderson, San Francisco, a retired photography instructor:

Kevin Roberts, Berkeley, an Artist (Painter) and photographer:

David Light, San Jose, a travel photographer and writer.
